4. Comment. For information on the transfer of an air transport regiment from the Schoenefeld airfield to the Alt-Boennwitz airfield near Fallenberg, see paragraph 3 of this report. This paragraph also includes the transfer of ground units of the other air transport unit which transferred from the Staaken airfield to the Schoenefeld airfield. The Schoenefeld airfield is also used by aircraft of commercial airlines of the USSR and the satellite countries. The LI-2s observed are rather safely believed to belong to these airlines.
